

A Solution to the Pollution!

Meet Miri. Her ambition is to make a solution to the pollution in her school's park.

Miri finds friends, and together they will make a solution!

They build an organization. Miri's friends work together with affection.

Soon they start construction of a new park.

Look and see the green grass, the trees, and a few birds. "No question, there is no more pollution!" says Miri.

Miri smiles, "With ambition and organization we can together make a great solution!"
