

Anna and the Building

Anna wakes up in the morning and wants to build a building.

Anna drinks some very sweet fruit juice and starts working.

Anna starts to build the building, but it falls down and is ruined.

Anna feels guilty but she goes to wake up her mom.

Anna's mom tells her quietly, "Take the equipment quickly and let's build it again."

Anna's mom guides her in how to rebuild the building in a suitable way.

After they finish rebuilding the building, they go to play the guitar together.

Board game

Print two copies of the word list from the previous pages, cut up the words and use them as cards for the game. Each player needs one "piece."

Start playing the board, every time move only one step forward. When you land on 'short u' take a word card from the word list that you cut before and put it on the same square (a word that makes the sound of 'short u' such as: guitar, guilt and building). When you land on a picture, say what you see in the picture by the word list.
