

The Boy and the Toy

A boy saw a toy he will enjoy.
He wants it, but hasn't even one coin.

He went to the park, and asked the people there if they had a job for him. "Will you employ me?"

Joyce told him in a kind voice,
"My boyfriend needs help in his garden." "This is a job I will enjoy!" said the boy.

He worked and worked, and finally...with the coins he got, he ran to the store and got the toy.

Since the toy was his choice, he enjoys it more than any of his other toys.

Most important, he worked for it, so it gives him pride and joy. What you work for, you enjoy more!

Word List

1		boy
2		toy
3		joy
4		enjoy
5		employ
6		Joyce
7		boyfriend
8		choice
9		coin
10		voice
11		work
12		important

Game:

Think how many words we can make by changing the first part of the word.
We have the letters "oy", add other letters to make a word.

Example:

t-oy

b-oy

enj-oy

Now it's your turn:

Cut out the following cards and put them together to form words:

	t oy
	b oy
	j oy
	c oin

enj oy

empl oy

J oyce

v oice

ch oice

Lesson 75, Target letter oy

by: Salomon Michan

Online game: Wordwall <https://wordwall.net/he/resource/34481429>

