

Sue and Stu's Stew

On Tuesday Sue and Stu went for a stew!

On the menu there was no normal stew, I'll give you clue...

It wasn't made from glue, but it was blue!

"A blue stew!" Stu said to Sue, "I'd rather jump in a pool!"

"That's rather cruel," said Sue to Stu.

"True," said Stu. "At least it's not made out of goo!"

Bingo

Preparation: Lamination optional. Print two copies of the first board and one copy of the second. Cut one copy of the first board into word squares and put them in a bag. Have markers (beans, buttons) ready to mark words or laminate boards and use erasable markers to mark boards.

Play: Have the learner draw words from the bag and read them aloud. Place a marker on the word on your board. Three in a row in any direction wins. Have the learner read aloud the words in the completed row, and translate them for bonus points.
