

Rex and the Chocolate Cake

Joy and Jonathon helped Dad bake a big chocolate cake for Mom's birthday.

Dad and the children went out to play in the garden.

The family dog, Rex, jumped on the table and ate the cake.

Joy and Jonathon found Rex on the floor. "What happened to Rex?" said Joy, "He looks terrible." "Look, he ate the chocolate cake!" said Jonathon.

"Let's take him to the animal hospital." "That's a great idea" said Dad. "Let's go!"

The family got lost on the way to the vet, so they stopped and asked a policeman: "Where is the animal hospital?"

The policeman said: "It is opposite the supermarket."

The vet looked at Rex and said: "Your dog looks terrible. Do you know the reason why?"

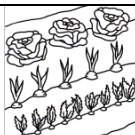

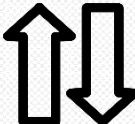

"Yes" said the children, "He ate a whole chocolate cake."

"Oh, no." said the vet, "Chocolate is terrible for animals. You need to go to the pharmacy to buy medicine for Rex."

The family went to the pharmacy to buy Rex's medicine. Then the children said: "We have an idea! Let's go to the supermarket and buy a chocolate cake for Mom's birthday." Dad agreed: "That's a great idea!"
