

The Little Black Pine Plant

Lisa has a little black pine plant.
"Let's plant it!" said Lisa.

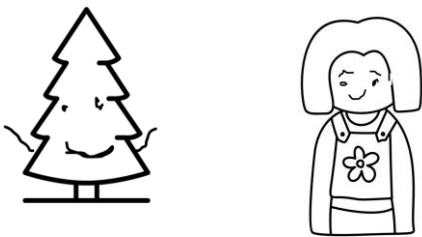

Lisa plants the little black pine in the land and adds milk beside its site.

Lisa sat and sat.
The plant didn't rise yet.
Lisa is sad. She talks and the plant listens. She held the plant. She helps it stand.

Lisa has a plan.
She hides the plant and shines a lamp at
it.

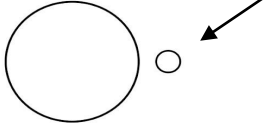

At last the plant rises and smiles!
It likes Lisa.

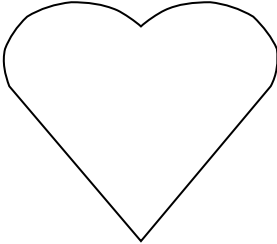

At the end, Lisa's plant isn't little.
It is a pine!
It is here. It is Lisa's pride!
