

Spelling Changes for -ing Word Sort

Instructions

This game practices the spelling changes for adding -ing to verbs: the cvc doubling rule (for both one-syllable cvc words and multi-syllable -cvc words), drop-the-final-e rule, just add -ing rule, and -ic+ing=-icking. (You need to teach this last one especially for the game.) (Note: the rule "change -ie to y and add -ing" is not included because "ie" and this rule are in lesson 69.)

Preparation: Print this table of words and the two blank sorting boards. Laminate. Cut the table of words into individual slips. Place the slips in a bag.

If you think the color coding gives it away and your learner is advanced, select the words in the table and change the font color to black.

To play: Review the categories at the top of each board. In turn, each player draws a word slip from a bag, reads the word, and places it on her board in its proper category. The first player to get three in one category wins.

asking	setting	beginning	baking	mosaicking
adding	hitting	listening	taking	politicking
sniffing	hopping	admitting	hoping	panicking
going	sitting	labelling	closing	frolicking
flying	stopping	coloring	riding	trafficking
being	spinning	gardening	hiding	mimicking

Fill the List Bingo: adding -ing

add do > doing	CVC skip > skipping	-CVC garden > begin > gardening beginning	-e skate > skating	-ic picnic > picnicking

Fill the List Bingo: adding -ing

add do > doing	CVC skip > skipping	-CVC garden > begin > gardening beginning	-e skate > skating	-ic picnic > picnicking