

Joe's Dancing Shoes

Next week is the school Talent Show and Joe doesn't know what to do!

Closing his eyes, he imagines pianos playing, haloes hanging in the air, and himself dancing on his tiptoes. But something is missing...

SHOES! He doesn't have dancing shoes!
How will he dance without the right shoes?

He wants to go completely retro, just like all the weirdos with cool hairdos he saw in photos.

It doesn't even matter what he has tomorrow, he MUST make sure he goes to buy shoes, or his dance won't be perfect!

He cannot have people laugh or throw tomatoes at him!

And so, he went, and he looked. He saw tap shoes, and ballet shoes. All new and shiny. But nothing felt right.

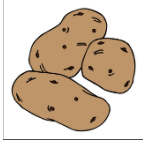

Until... At last, he found a vintage store. So many shoes he didn't know what to choose! He tried on pair after pair, until he saw the perfect disco shoes!!!

* Watch out for words that end with 'o' and don't get 'es' when plural:
hairdos, pianos, photos, weirdos.
