

Dan and the Shark's Jaw

Dan went for a walk on the coast at dawn. The morning was beautiful: bright and calm. It didn't rain, so he didn't take his coat.

He sat and watched the sea. He saw a boat and he wanted to draw it.

Dan's father called. "Please, be careful, Dan. Don't go into the sea. There is a big shark in the sea."

Dan was careless. He wasn't afraid. He yawned and ran into the ocean. He began to swim.

Then he saw an open jaw. "My dad was right! I'd better swim fast!"

Dan swam as fast as he could, away from the shark's jaw, away for good. He reached the sand and lay still, safe at last.

Happy Families

Preparation: Laminate and cut up cards.

Play: Shuffle cards and deal 4 cards to each player and leave the rest face down in a pile in the middle. Each player tries to make a family of 4 by asking another player for a card they need to complete a family: "Do you have 'draw' from the 'AW' family?" If the second player has it, they say, "Yes, I do" and gives the card. If not, they say, "No, I don't. Go Fish" and the player who needs the card takes one from the top of the pile. Four matching cards makes a family. The player with the most families wins.
