

The Fawn that Draws a Strawberry

All night, the fawn draws a strawberry with pencils. He paints it with paints. He draws until late. He doesn't sleep. He is very tired, but he draws a great drawing.

At dawn, he puts his drawing into a drawer in his desk.

The fawn yawns and crawls into bed.

Later in the day, when the fawn awoke, he saw his paints and pencils but he didn't see his drawing. "That's awkward," said the fawn. "I forgot where I put my drawing."

He looks all around his room. No drawing!

Suddenly he remembers. "Oh, that's right, I put my strawberry drawing in my desk drawer."

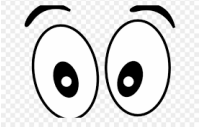

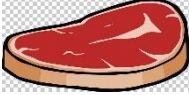

He opens the drawer. There is the drawing!

The fawn decides, "This drawing is so good, I will frame it and hang it on the wall." And so he did!
