

| Mr. Boot and the School | |
|--|--|
| Mr. Boot doesn't give a hoot for the students in his school. He just takes fees and gives tests. |  A large, portly man with a black cap and a dark suit is sitting at a desk covered with stacks of gold coins and papers. He is holding a quill pen and looking sternly at the camera. In the background, a chalkboard has the word 'Tuition' written upside down. |
| He doesn't let students take notes in their notebooks. There is no good food in the school dining room. |  Mr. Boot is standing behind a counter in a dining room, serving a tray of food to a group of young students. He has a stern expression. The students are looking at the food with various expressions of interest and concern. |
| He has many bad moods and shames them, too. There is no more football for them He isn't good to the students. |  Mr. Boot is standing in a classroom with his arms crossed, looking angry. A colorful football is on the floor in front of him. Students are sitting at their desks in the background, some looking towards him. |
| Then the parents of the students tell Mr. Boot to go. The students have a goodbye party. They tell him, "Goodbye!" and bring balloons! |  A group of students and their parents are gathered around a table in a classroom, celebrating. They are holding many colorful balloons (pink, yellow, blue, green). A banner hanging on the wall reads 'FREEDOM AT LAST!'. Mr. Boot is visible in the background, looking surprised. |

The parents and students agree, "We will look for someone cool to run the school!"

They look for someone cool.
Soon they pick a cool lady, Ms. Moon, to run their school.

Ms. Moon hires good cooks and there is good food in the dining room.
There are lots of good books in the classrooms.

The students take lots of notes in their notebooks.

Football comes back to their school.

School is fun!

Everyone is happy with Ms. Moon and the school.

3x3 matching game

Cut out the squares. Match the rhyming words, placing them together (the edges of their squares touching). Assemble the puzzle into a 3X3 square so that every word only touches a rhyming word.

(There are lots of "right ways" to assemble the puzzle, since the words at the top and bottom of each column and both ends of each row also match.)
